

Constitution Day Celebration

On the occasion of Constitution Day, a special programme was organised at Vidya Pratishthan's Kamalnayan Bajaj Institute of Engineering & Technology (VPKBIET), Baramati on 26th November 2025 at 4pm new building. The event aimed to create awareness among students about the values, principles, and significance of the Indian Constitution.

The session featured two distinguished speakers: Prof. Ajit Narayan Murumkar, Professor at Vidya Pratishthan's Vasant Rao Pawar Law College, Baramati, and Prof. D. S. Sonawane from VPKBIET. Prof. Murumkar delivered an insightful address on the evolution of the Constitution, fundamental rights, and the responsibilities of citizens. Prof. Sonawane highlighted the importance of constitutional values in shaping a responsible and progressive society.

The programme was attended by faculty members Dr. S. B. Walke, Mrs. Priyanka Choudhar, Miss Kulkarni, and Dr. U. T. Jagadale, along with students from various departments. The session concluded with an interactive discussion and a vote of thanks.

The event successfully inspired students to uphold constitutional duties and contribute meaningfully to nation-building.
